

"DUNGEON" CELL IS DESCRIBED AS INFERNO CIRCLE

Thomas Mott Osborn Too Weak to Tell of His Experiences
After Spending a Week in the Auburn, N. Y., Prison.

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 6.—Thomas Mott Osborn, chairman of the New York state commission on prison reform after spending a week in Auburn prison as an inmate for the purpose of studying the prison system, ended his self-imposed term Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Osborn, who was pale and tired and showed the marks of his ordeal, but he was enthusiastic over the success of his experiment which included a taste of every experience possible for an inmate to undergo aside from electrocution.

He even committed misdeeds Saturday of sufficient moment to cause his incarceration in the "dungeon" cells, and he lay on his back in the prison jail from 2 o'clock Saturday until 6 o'clock Sunday morning his ration consisting of three quills of water and three slices of bread.

Sunday he declared that this part of his experience took him into the "innermost circle of inferno." He is positive that the fruits of his week's stay in prison will be valuable to the commission.

System is Cruel.
"I am more than ever confirmed in my previous opinion," said Mr. Osborn, "that the prison system is singularly unintelligent, ineffective and cruel. In many respects the material welfare of the convicts is well looked after."

"While it is not advisable for me to attempt to formulate any detailed criticism of the prison system at this time, because I am tired and bewildered, there are one or two things that I may be well to mention while they are fresh in mind."

"The prison system is a form of slavery. The great truths enunciated by Lincoln and others against slavery are equally applicable to prison slavery. It takes from the convict his own initiative and freedom of action and he becomes an irresponsible automaton, unable to guide his own destiny when he returns to the outside world."

"As one instance of the unintelligence of the system there is the attempt to drive prisoners from the normal uses of their senses of sight and speech. After seven days of marching and counter-marching, I am utterly unable to tell you about the appearance of the men of my company and can only describe the haircuts of about twenty men who marched and sat in front of me."

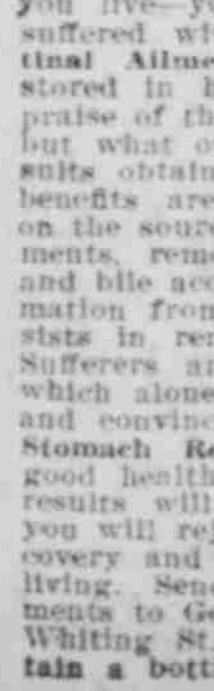

Unable to Speak.
"Whenever my left hand neighbor, good looking and agreeable young fellow, wished to share his portion of sugar for porridge, he would simply pass it over to me and utter 'sugar' in the softest undertone. In fact, to learn to speak without moving the lips and to catch the sounds of words so uttered is one of the things a new convict tries to acquire."

"Another unintelligent aspect is the way the system inevitably tends towards making punishment for small offenses the same as for great offenses. There is no difference for instance between the offense of a man who speaks in the shop and a man who tries to kill his keeper with a crow bar. Both are treated to a dungeon. I obtained from my night in the punishment cell a glimpse into the lower circles of inferno, and it will be best for me not to try to analyze my impressions of it at this time."

Amazed at Courage.
"I was amazed at the amount of splendid courage, fine feeling and neighborly interest displayed by the inmates toward each other. What cruelty it is to forbid a man to write more than one letter a month. He has been perhaps carried away from wife and family. His friends are full of sympathy. He is plunged into this strange and lonesome prison world and then by the refinement of cruelty he is denied the privilege of writing. What is gained by such restrictions?"

"I hope to translate these experiences into something of great value to convicts, to myself and to the people of this state."

19 NIGHTS WITHOUT NATURAL SLEEP

Peculiar Condition of Peter Vetoole of 230 N. Studebaker St., South Bend, Ind.—Baffled the Doctors—For Eighteen Days and Nineteen Nights He Went Without Natural Sleep.

One of the most interesting cases of fate to be reported by the medical profession is that of Peter Vetoole, of South Bend, Ind. He says he felt like needles were pricking his flesh, and became so nervous that he went eighteen days and nineteen nights without any natural sleep. Doctor after doctor failed to give a proper explanation, or to relieve him. This was his condition when he went to the United Doctors, whose South Bend Institute is located on the second floor of the Toepf building, opposite the post office. Mr. Vetoole says:

"Dear Doctor:
"About ten days ago I called at your office after going to many local doctors, paying them for their treatment. I took their medicine, and it did me no good. It appeared to me the other doctors did not understand my case and were only guessing."
"After the United Doctors had made a thorough and searching examination of my lungs, heart, liver, and stomach, they told me at once that my trouble was, I had so much pain in my kidneys, and my urine seemed to burn when it passed. I tried to work at night and sleep in the day time. For eighteen days and nineteen nights I could not get no natural sleep, and became a total wreck. I got so I could not eat, and felt like vomiting all the time. There was a feeling all over my body as if some one were sticking needles into my flesh, and parts of my body seemed to burn. My head ached so at times I could scarcely see."

"This was my condition of health when I applied to the United Doctors. After three doses of their medicine I could sleep, and can eat almost anything. My back does not hurt me, and I feel like a new man. Thanks to the United Doctors. Words fail me when I attempt to express my appreciation of your service and expert treatment. I can only say I feel like a different individual than when I began your treatment."

"I wish to add my testimony to the many you already have."
"I have many friends who were suffering have taken them to the United Doctors, and they are well pleased."

"PETER VETOOLE."
Dr. Bartlett, the specialist in charge of the South Bend Institute will receive and examine all patients free of charge at the office of the Institute, between the hours of 9 and 12 a. m., 2 and 5 p. m., 7 and 8 p. m., and Sundays from 10 to 12 a. m. —Adv't.

PRESIDENT VISITS LAD HIT BY HIS AUTO

Messenger Boy Told Not to Worry as People Do Not Lose Jobs
Through Injuries.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Pres. Wilson went to Providence Hospital Sunday and visited Robert Crawford, the 15-year-old messenger boy, who was struck by the president's automobile Saturday.

The president sat by the boy's bedside while the youngster related again the incidents of the mishap, how he was trying to dodge stones being thrown at him by another boy, and turned his bicycle in front of the automobile without seeing it.

"I didn't know you were in the machine," Crawford told the president. He showed Mr. Wilson his injured ankle and bruised knee.

"I'll be all right in a few days," he said. "I had better be, or I'll lose my job."

The president reassured him that folks didn't usually lose their jobs when they met with accidents and not to worry about it.

Mrs. Crawford, the boy's mother, who is employed at the hospital, expressed her appreciation to the president for his attention to her son.

SOCIAL RELATIONS ARE PERSONAL MATTERS
Secy. Daniels Will Take No Notice of Charges That Snobbery Prevails in American Navy.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Declaring that a naval officer's social relations "are a matter for personal determination," Secy. Daniels let it be known that he did not expect to investigate published allegations by Arthur Middleton of Washington, a former navy paymaster, that caste and snobbery prevail in the American navy.

The secretary is investigating, however, Middletons charge that he had observed drinking and gambling aboard the cruiser Denver and the gunboat Yorktown. The former paymaster, who was at the navy department in response to a letter from the secretary asking for an explanation of his allegations, confined himself to general statements without details. He will be questioned further later.

CURRENCY MEASURE IS DRAWING ATTENTION
Senate Committee to be Kept Busy
For at Least Month is Prediction.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Political Washington relieved of the long drawn out consideration of the tariff will focus its attention this week on the second of the democratic reform measures—banking and currency legislation.

Though the administration bill easily passed the house its pathway in the senate is admittedly full of obstacles. At present the senate banking committee has not yet begun consideration of the bill, intending for at least ten days more to hear prominent bankers and finance experts. Predictions at the capitol are general that for a month thereafter the senate committee will be at work on the measure, considering numerous amendments.
